5. NARRATIVE LATITUDE: 42 09 LONGITUDE: -79 56 This incident is alleged to have occurred as follows; unknown actor(s) arrived at the scene. Once there the actor(s) entered the victims garage unforced and via an unknown means. Once inside the actor(s) proceeded to the Northwest corner of the garage. The actor(s) then opened a drawer to a wooden stand. The actor(s) then opened a Beretta gun case and removed the aforementioned handguns. The actor(s) then, apparently, closed the case and drawer and fled the scene undetected.				Frank DIGELLO
PHYSICAL EVIDENCE None, due to the grainy nature of the handgun case and the fact that the victim cannot narrow down the date of the incident.
INTERVIEWS The victim was interviewed on 07/17/2003 at approximately 0900 hours, on scene. He said he moved in with his mother after losing his job at the end of January. He said he put the handgun case in the drawer in the garage. He said he has not gone to look for the guns until now. He said a few months ago the garage door was broken and a section was missing. He said anyone could have entered at that time without forcing their way in.
This officer entered the stolen guns into NCIC. REGIONAL MESSAGE ATTACHED This investigation will be terminated due to a lack of investigative leads. Should any leads develop this report will be supplemented.
